Wetlands and your farm Not just a slough anymore!

Join us for the last in a series of free workshops. Hot lunch is included!

Wetlands pose benefits and challenges in agricultural landscapes. The Alberta Wetland Policy aspires to no future net loss of wetlands. At this session, we will hear from Ducks Unlimited and Alternative Land Use Services, two groups with wetland-related programs that work within agricultural systems.

Workshop 3: Wetland Related Programs for Local Farmers

Date: Thursday, Feb. 15

Time: 10 a.m. - 1 p.m.

Location: Leduc County Community and Operations Centre boardroom

(single-story building north of County Centre, 1101 5 Street, Nisku. Please use west doors).

Cost: Free of charge

Pre-registration is required by Monday, Feb. 12. To register or for more information, please contact Kim at 780-387-6182, kimb@leduc-county.com or kbarkwell@county.wetaskiwin.ab.ca.

"Conservation will ultimately boil down to rewarding the private landowner who conserves the public interest."

ALUS seeks new participants for 2018!

Are you a farmer or rancher with some marginal or ecologically sensitive acres?

ALUS can help you establish wetlands, native prairie, pollinator habitat and other projects on your land.

Even better, ALUS pays you annually to keep these projects in prime working order.

Your ALUS projects will produce cleaner air, cleaner water and more biodiversity, benefiting both your farm and your community.

Across Canada, more than 830 agricultural producers have already enrolled over 23,000 acres in the ALUS program.
